

Alaska DB101

New Youth Content

Presented by  World Institute on Disability

Webinar on November 13th
1:00 - 2:30 PM

Alaska Disability Benefits 101 (DB101) webinar will educate attendees on the AK DB101 website to reduce myths that are barriers to employment. AK DB101 provides information to help people with disabilities and their circle of supports to make informed decisions about employment, benefits, health coverage, wealth-building, and more including the newly added Youth and Parent content and tools.

Come learn how to use AK DB101 to:

- Explain complex SSI/SSDI rules/work incentives and the impact of employment on state/federal benefits
- Use the Benefit and Work Estimator and the new School and Work Estimator to see how specific work goals may impact benefits
- Motivate and support employment and transition plans
- Understand youth transition resources for employment, education, and independent living

Who should join? Independent Living Centers, DVR Counselors, Governor's Council, Disability Law Center, Alaska CWICs, Employment Service Providers, Care Coordinators, individual supporting people with disabilities especially young people with disabilities
