

Rami Pagel-Miller

My name is Rami Pagel-Miller; I'm a born-and-raised Alaskan, proud mom to five wonderful people and a grandma too. I've been with my husband for 29 years. My daughter Bianca and son Joshua are both autistic, but the journey with each has been completely different. I enjoy cooking, baking, reading, word search puzzles, volunteering in my community, advocating for my family and others with disabilities, sitting by the water, 80s rock and country, coffee, and more.
